

“With a strong
heart and a
ready mind
what have I
to fear?”

(Chu Yuan, aka Qu Yuan, Chinese politician who became a poet, c.300BC, China's first great poet and considered the father of Chinese poetry, his death by drowning in 278BC is celebrated every year on the Day of Dragon Boat Festival.)