

“We can restructure globalization so that those in both the developed and the developing world, the current and future generations, can all benefit - though there are some special interests who will lose out, and they will resist these changes. We can have stronger economies and societies that put more weight on values, like culture, the environment, and life itself.”

(Joseph E Stiglitz, b.1943, American economist, humanitarian, and writer, from his 2006 book Making Globalization Work.)
